Product Details

If you're needing a cut-resistant sleeve, then you cannot do better than our new BLADE® Cut 5 Knit Sleeve With Thumb Hole - 39cm. It uses our new high-tech yarn, easily the most advanced cut-resistant yarn on the market.

This sleeve provides exceptional protection and durability in high-cut environments.

Not only is this sleeve incredibly strong, but it's comfortable to wear. Its Thumb hole style provides wrist protection restricting sleeve sliding up the forearm. It's ambidextrous design means anyone can use this sleeve, and you get excellent sensitivity and dexterity without compromising on protection.
